President's Notes

Thus begins the forty-sixth season of the Rochester Music Guild – for “the promotion of music appreciation, education, and performance in Rochester and environs,” (mission statement). This is a major challenge, but in pulling together talent within our community to serve on the Board of Directors, and by coordinating many projects throughout the years, we have continuously strived to meet this mission. Many of our current projects will be highlighted in this issue.

It is my privilege to lead this group throughout the year; however, I first wish to express my admiration and appreciation to DeAnn Spencer, the president during the past two years, for her creativity and leadership. It should make it easy for me to follow since much of what she has initiated will develop more fully during this year. DeAnn worked many hours to achieve so much for all of the goals stated above. I will comment on only a few highlights of her tenure.

First, she spearheaded a very special evening each fall of her presidency for member recognition. Each evening had a theme plus a lovely dinner. Members enjoyed these events immensely. The first of these programs highlighted musical organizations in the community, giving each a chance to tell their story. The second year we were treated to professional operatic talent. Hey...the food was terrific as well!

She spearheaded an expansion of our organization's program of grants to local programs that focus on excellence in musical performance, especially those presenting opportunities for our youth. Her leadership also led to expansion of our Scholarship Competition, increasing our categories to include divisions for middle school students separate from older students. To do so required additional funding, and DeAnn stepped forward again, raising funds to make expansion in three categories possible.

Well, I could go on, but I know she did not do any of this to take any personal credit. I am counting on her as past president to assist me in seeing these advancements continue and grow. I am pleased that we were able to interest a very talented instructor in music at the Rochester Community and Technical College to join our ranks. Matt Hafar, who has taught at the college for four years, joined our board and has now agreed to serve as president-elect. Matt has been active in both the membership and grants committees.

With funds now available through the South-eastern Minnesota Arts Council by the legislature and the heritage fund, DeAnn and Kevin Dobbe both spearheaded efforts to bring a portion of these funds back to our area. With these two grants, we will be able to continue the expansion of the Scholarship Competition, and enhance the very successful Lunch & Learn Program. The final L&L program of the season hit an attendance high of about 90 people. Kevin has already put together an outstanding program for this year. These educational programs are available at no cost to the public. Of course, there is a fee to cover the lunch, but brown bags are welcome as well.

I would love to elaborate further about the work of other board members during the past year; however, my space is limited, and you will be able to read about other aspects of the Rochester Music Guild on the following pages. Perhaps I have whetted your appetite to read on!

2010 Senior Scholarship Awards

Each spring, the Rochester Music Guild awards a $150 scholarship to a senior at each of Rochester's three public high schools. The students, recognized for musical excellence and dedication, are selected by the music faculty at each school.

Two of the awards are given in memory of Sid Suddendorf, a long-time music consultant for the Rochester School District. This year's Suddendorf scholarship award winners were Kelly Adkins (John Marshall High School) and Minsoo Kim (Mayo High School).

The Rochester Music Guild funds a third scholarship for a senior at Century High School and this year Patrick Testa received that award. All the scholarships were presented to the students at Senior Award ceremonies this past May.

Membership

Have you renewed your membership with Rochester Music Guild for 2010-2011? Have you invited a friend to join the organization? If the answer is no, there is still time. The membership application can be clipped from the back page of this newsletter and mailed to RMG with your payment.

All new and renewing members will be eligible for ticket drawings at our Lunch & Learn program on October 29.

We are excited about the upcoming season and what we can do to provide support for music in the Rochester community. Our organization continues to provide both volunteers and financial support for the Rochester Symphony Orchestra and Chorale. Our annual scholarship competition awards multiple scholarships to area students. Additionally, we grant funds to non-profit organizations for the promotion of music appreciation through education and performance.

We sponsor a free monthly educational series known as Lunch & Learn, featuring a variety of topics and musicians. For these programs, you can bring your own lunch, you can purchase lunch, or you can purchase dessert and coffee. You will also receive notices of special music events throughout our area.

Membership dues provide the base for all of these activities. Please consider becoming a new member or renewing your membership. And, be sure to also invite your friends and neighbors to join Rochester Music Guild.

The Lyra Baroque Orchestra of St. Paul is graciously offering free tickets to all of our members for the second of five concerts to be held in Rochester this season. The concert is on Friday, October 29, 7:30 pm, at the Zumbro Lutheran Church. It is Music of Bach's Good Friends - Graupner, Fasch and Telemann. For free tickets for you and members of your family, please call Glenn VanLaningham at 289-2668, or notify him by email at vanlaninghams@charter.net.

Baroque music is from the era of Bach, Haydn, Mozart and Vivaldi. The organization was founded in 1985 by musicians in the Twin Cities area - performers, composers and educators. The orchestra has performed in many cities in the United States and Europe.

Lyra is seeking to expand its base of support in Rochester, and is making this phenomenal offer. Just let me know in time to get tickets ordered and sent to you.

Meet Board Member Lois Johnson

Lois joined the RMG board last June, and really hit the ground running! She took on the job of Membership Chair, which meant getting the annual Membership mailing out during the summer. She did an excellent job, and the new member applications and renewals are just pouring in!

It's not surprising that Lois has super organizational skills when you find out that she retired to Rochester after a long career in bank operations and technology. She was with First Bank System for 23 years and retired as Executive Vice President of Key Bank in Washington.

Lois is actually a Minnesota native, growing up on a farm in NW Minnesota. She attended the University of Minnesota in the Twin Cities, earning her degree from the Carlson School of Management, which is the business school of the U of M. Her career included working as a Systems Analyst for a manufacturing company in Germany, several years in St. Paul and Minneapolis and then in Tacoma, Washington. She came to Rochester when she retired and married a college friend from when they attended the University. Lowell owned his own business, in Dodge Center, exporting construction equipment and parts to the Western Pacific islands.

One of the first things the Johnsons did when they got settled in Rochester was to sign up for season tickets to the Rochester Symphony Orchestra & Chorale, which led inevitably to a connection with the Rochester Music Guild. Lois had a lifelong interest in music, growing up with seven sisters who all sang wherever and whenever they got a chance. Lois also played bassoon in her high school band. Her sisters all still sing in their church choirs across four states and the eight of them still sing whenever they are together. .

Lois is active as a volunteer with her church, Zumbro Lutheran, Paws & Claws, Festival of Trees for Hiawatha Homes, the Mayo hospice program, and political candidates. Lois and Lowell even provide a loving home for 15 feral and abandoned cats on their property in Dodge Center! They have an office and warehouse and other buildings on seven acres so the cats can go in and out at will and wander where they want. There are lots of heated beds and food and water and few ever leave again!

Lois's primary hobby, in addition to music, has been a lifelong interest in traveling. While working in Germany, she took an extended camping vacation around the Mediterranean Sea. She says that was back "when I was young and foolish." It must have turned out well, however, because she continues to travel abroad to this day, and has visited all seven continents touring the majority of countries and islands.

Lois has had, and continues to have, a very exciting life, and we are lucky that she is willing to take time out from all that fun to work with us on the board of the Rochester Music Guild.

Joyce Lewis

Meet Board Member Matt Hafar

Matt Hafar was welcomed to the RMG Board of Directors in June of this year. Matt is deeply involved in music – both as a performer and a teacher. He brings to the board a youthful enthusiasm, and an interest in community involvement. At the September meeting of the board, Matt was elected to the position of president-elect.

Currently, Matt is an Instructor of Music at RCTC where he is beginning his fourth year. He teaches music theory, and world music, and instructs students in brass instruments. As part of his community involvement, he sings in the choir and directs the brass ensemble at the Zumbro Lutheran Church.

Matt grew up in Marshalltown, Iowa, where his parents continue to reside. He graduated from St. Olaf College in Northfield, and continued his studies at the University of Iowa, where he earned an M.A. in trombone, eventually graduating with a Ph.D. in music theory.

Before coming to Rochester, he taught at Winston-Salem State University in North Carolina for 12 years and at Adams State College in Colorado for 4 years.

He played trombone in the Winston-Salem Symphony and subbed with many other orchestras in NC and Iowa. He also played the sackbut in an early music ensemble in NC and sang with the Piedmont Chamber Singers.

Despite residing in several states since his upbringing and education in Iowa, Matt has remained an enthusiastic fan of the Iowa Hawkeyes. He hosts a weekly game watch at Beetle's for Hawkeye football fans. So far this year, they have had a lot to cheer about! Matt's companion is a beautiful greyhound named Lena.

Matt leaped enthusiastically into the work of the Guild, being a member of the executive, membership and grants committees. He recently returned from a one week business trip to Vienna, Austria. Tough assignment!

Lunch & Learn

The 2010-2011 Lunch & Learn programs are organized and ready to go! We kicked off the season on Monday, September 27, with Jere Lantz's ever-popular and informative commentary on the next RSOC concert, which took place the following Saturday night, October 2, at Mayo Civic Center Presentation Hall. The Maestro will return to Charter House on Monday, February 14, to talk to us about "Wagner and the Gods". The rest of the Lunch & Learn sessions for the season will be held at our new venue, the Rochester Art Center. This is a great downtown central location that has proven to be a wonderful place to see and hear the diverse Lunch & Learn sessions. Lunches can be ordered at the cost of $8.50 by calling Carol Benson at 252-1314. Lunch is at 11:30 am; programs begin at 12:00 noon.

In 1999 he premiered excerpts of his new opera, White Nights, with the Rochester (MN) Orchestra and Chorus, soloist Dan Dressen, and conductor Jere Lantz.

Friday, November 12th, 2010:

Carla Thelen Hanson (Soprano) & Ainhoa Urkijo (Piano)

This exciting duo has quickly become a regional favorite! The virtuosity and artistic sensitivity of these two artists required an encore from the 2010 season. Carla Thelen Hanson is garnering attention for prolific performances in leading roles with companies nationwide including a recent Tosaca performance with the New York City Opera. Ainhoa Urkijo, a native of Bilbao, Spain, has performed in concert hall throughout Europe and the United States. The two will join forces to provide a brief tour and history of the opera aria.

Rochester Symphony Orchestra & Chorale

Sounds of the Symphony

The Rochester Music Guild is a strong supporter of the youth education programs of the Rochester Symphony Orchestra & Chorale.

Each year the Rochester Symphony Orchestra & Chorale presents the popular one-day workshop -“HoNk*SqUeAk*ScRaTcH*BoOm,” - an opportunity for youngsters to try out musical instruments with the assistance of professional musicians.

In the same spirit of education, Sounds of the Symphony is a traveling program which brings RSOC musicians into the classrooms. Throughout the school year, RSOC musicians pay visits to small groups of third to fifth graders at schools in Rochester and surrounding communities to demonstrate musical sounds and answer questions, at no cost to the schools or students. For the 2010-11 school year, we are scheduled to present 33 sessions at 16 schools including Lanesboro, Chatfield, Triton/Dodge Center and Elgin as well as most Rochester public and private schools.

This year Rochester Music Guild generously provided $2,000 for the project, as part of their mission to “promote the art of music through appreciation, education, and performance in Rochester and environs.”

Rochester Symphony Orchestra & Chorale is grateful for Rochester Music Guild's partnership in Sounds of the Symphony and for its continuing volunteer support of the annual HoNk, SQuEaK, ScRaTcH BoOm!

Third Annual Rochester ARTStoberFEST

Happy National Arts and Humanities Month!

Mayor Ardell Brede has again proclaimed the month of October as ARTStoberFEST in Rochester and called upon citizens to celebrate and promote the arts and culture in our city.

This month-long festival is a great opportunity to discover (or re-discover) the wonderful panoply of arts offered in the Rochester area. We urge you to participate in as many events as you can, to get involved in the arts/organizations closest to your heart, and to be inspired daily!

The Rochester Arts Council website, <http://rochestermnarts.com/events/artstoberfest>, describes the month's many activities. Featured "keynote events" include:

Choral Arts Ensemble "Music of the Masters" concert, October 9-10

Rochester Art Center "Empty Bowls" fundraiser for the hungry, October 21

Lyra Baroque Orchestra's "Bach's Good Friends" concert, October 29

Sylvie T. Nickel, Arts Advocate

Do we have your e-mail address?

Lack of time and money (the lack of, that is) preclude the Music Guild from sending members interesting and pertinent arts-related information through US mail.

But if you will give us an e-mail address, we can quickly and inexpensively share:

- 2010-11 Rochester Musical Performances calendar
- Citizens for the Arts information on candidates and legislation
- Classical Post from MPR
- Reminders of Music Guild Lunch & Learn presentations
- News of "late-breaking" musical opportunities, such as the handbell convention, Rose Ensemble, Vintage Band Festival, Winona Legacy Weekend, etc

Please consider including your e-mail address on your membership renewal form or, if you forgot when you renewed, you can send an e-mail update to your Arts Advocate:

Thanks!

2010-11 Musical Performance Calendar

The third annual compilation of local musical performances was distributed via email early in September. This year I've tried to note all the FREE performances (where, of course, donations are always welcome). What a lot of great opportunities!

In response to comments and requests, the calendar has been expanded to include programs from Rochester Civic Music's "Riverside Live" series, the RCTC Music Dept, and the "Americana Showcase" presented by the Rochester Civic Theatre.

Hopefully, information on these additional events will be helpful in planning your "musical year".

Also, website addresses for the represented organizations are included at the end of the calendar, to make it easier to check out details, additional performances, etc.

Please, I welcome your comments, corrections, and suggestions! (nickelsylv@charter.net)

I do plan to update the calendar again in a few months, and will continue to send out "special notices" as I learn of them.

And if you need a[nother] copy, it's available on the Music Guild website, www.rochestermusicguild.org.

Looks like a great season!

Herberger's Community Day Saturday, November 13, 2010

Herberger's Fall Community Day event is scheduled for Saturday, November 13.

Our members earn money for Guild education and scholarship programs, as well as for our Rochester Symphony Orchestra & Chorale support, by buying and selling coupon books. This is a great fundraiser as the Guild gets to keep 100% of the money from any coupon packets we sell.

Coupon books are available for $5.00 and offer a wide range of great discounts--just in time for holiday buying. One of the coupons is for $10.00 off, so all you need to do is purchase one item on Community Day to double your $5.00.

In mid-October, two coupon books along with more information on the sale will be mailed out to members. Please watch for this mailing and plan to support our organization by purchasing the books for yourself or selling them to friends.

If you would like to buy a book in advance (or pick up several to sell), please contact me, Linda Anderson (269-3129) or any Board member.

Linda Anderson, Member-at-Large

Garden of Note

Thanks to 14 wonderful sellers, members of the RMG board, and many buyers of vouchers, we had a successful partnership sale with the two Sargent's Nurseries. With total sales and donations of almost $25,000, after expenses we cleared $4,906 for the Guild. Shirley Edmonson was our top seller for 2010.

Thanks to our sellers: Virginia Anderson, Nancy Brubaker, Nan Douglas, Barbara Eakins, Shirley Edmonson, Jean Gutschenritter, Ann Judisch, Lois Kennel, Judy Kereakos, Phyllis Layton, Carla Nelson, Deedee Odell, Diane Witzig, Janet Woods, and RMG board members.

The profits support our scholarship program and our pledge to the Rochester Symphony Orchestra and Chorale. The Music Guild appreciates the many volunteer hours of our sales team and the support of the Rochester community. May your gardens always be beautiful with your items from the use of the Sargent's vouchers.

Our wonderful sellers could use your help in 2011, so please think about joining them in the spring!
